SEEKING MINUTE
AT SHEEPSHEAD

Futurity Candidates Allowed
Light Exercise in the Heavy
Going at Bay Track—Fast
Work Out of the Question.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The grounds and track were flooded with water this morning, throughout the gate opening time and during the wee small hours, when the trainers and racers gathered, and the railbirds occupied their perches, it was doubtful in the extreme. There was no sign of reviving, however, from the training division, and the runners were brought to the open with their tails down and their cheeks dripping with water.

Only Light Work.
The exercises indulged in were of a desultory character and anything in the way of speed was, of course, impossible. Routine exercise was, however, thoroughly attended to, and through the mist and rain of the early hours many racers splattered over the ground and many Futurity candidates and others were sent to easy exercise that is so needed during the training season.

Magistrate Galloped.
The August Belmont Futurity candidate, Magistrate, did an easy gallop with his set and looked ready. James R. Keene's Delhi, which is one of the most conspicuous eligibles in the rich event, trotted and cantered.

J. E. Madden's victorious candidate, Ancestor, Abbell and Minute Man, fresh from their laurels and Saratoga, were shown to easy exercise and are in the pink of condition.

Sydney Paret's Ormonde's Right and Juvencal Maxim trotted and cantered and took kindly to the slush of the track. W. C. Whitney's two eligibles, Hyles and Stalwart and Mercury were brought from their homes at the head of the Futurity course and allowed light jogging exercise.

BAD TRACK AT GRAVESEND.

(Special to The Evening World.)
GRAVESEND, Aug. 28.—At the race-track this morning the conditions in the early hours were most unpropitious. A steady downpour of rain and a fierce wind blew, the temperature was cold and unpleasant, the condition of the track could not have been worse. It was a veritable quagmire.

A part of the Featherstone string arrived, the balance, by some mismanagement of the railroad, is side-tracked at Albany, causing an annoying delay.

J. A. Bennett's string, consisting of Kiegraine, Courtenay, Extralaw and Alfonte, arrived at their barn last evening along with the racers of the Prospect Stable, owned by Redfern, sr. These owners all report it being a difficult matter to obtain cars for transportation, as the racers are outward bound for the coming meeting at Buffalo. It will be the middle of next week before all the stables can get away from the Saratoga Race-Track, as the different strings are compelled to wait for the return of the horse cars, both from New York and Buffalo.

Holland's String Works.
J. L. Holland's Jack o' Lantern and Doyle were sent along to strong galloping of twice around the track at three-parts speed. Ned Moore, of this same string, galloped once around the well in hand, covering the distance in 0.55.

Igniter, of the Featherstone string, after a limbering up gallop, was sent one mile in 1.50 1/2. Ingold, from the same barn, breezed the mile route in 1.52. The Clay two-year-olds, Manoeuvre and Outcome, reeled off five-eighths of a mile in 1.05, both appearing to relish the sloppy conditions. McGivney's Queen Boula turned a handy five-furlong trip in 1.10.

The McGivney racers, Pentair and Brooklyne, breezed three-eighths of a mile down the back stretch in 40 seconds flat, a very good move, taking the conditions into consideration. Daly, from his namesake's barn, galloped one mile in 1.57 1/2. Lenarica, from the same stable, did the trick in 1.58.

Graham's jumper, Beggar Lady, turned the half mile route in 0.55. Our Nugget reeled off the mile distance in 1.50. Belo and Prairie Flower II., of the Covington string, stepped one mile, breezing all the way, in 1.53 1/2. Scholastic galloped the mile route at a two-minute gait. May Smith was sent three-quarters of a mile in 1.22.

Wyfield and Edolene galloped three furlongs in 0.43. T. D. Sullivan's The Bowerly turned five furlongs in 1.12. Explorer, from the same barn, galloped three-quarters of a mile in 1.26. Fabius, Carroll D. and Bobbinet, of the Daly lot, going together, reeled off a half-mile in 0.37 1/2.

RYAN MAY FIGHT SOON.

Tommy Ryan is now on his way to St. Louis, where he will take charge of the Missouri Athletic Club. Before he left St. Louis, Ryan said he would not think of doing any fighting before November. Then he thought he would be able to train, and the first man he wanted to meet was Jack O'Brien.

HERRERA MAY FIGHT YANGER

The matchmaker of the Mt. Haggin A. C., of Anaconda, Mont., wants to match Aurelia Herrera, the Mexican fighter, against Benny Yanger or Abe Quaker in a twenty-round bout to be held on Labor Day. Herrera is a big favorite in the Montana town. There will be excursions from all parts of Montana on that day, and the matchmaker of the club thinks a fight would draw a big house.

O'BRIEN WON FINISH FIGHT.

"New York Jack O'Brien," the water-weight fighter, defeated Dick Sayers, of England, in twenty-eight rounds in a tough fight for an $800 purse held on Thursday afternoon on a barge in the Hudson river, near Paterson, N. J. About three hundred sports witnessed the battle.

start except the bare outline of the field. They were at the post some minutes, and the crowd fretted and fumed. Finally the electric bell at the top of the judges' stand sounded and the crowd followed the signal with a roar.

THE BELLE LEADS.

Nothing could be seen of the first part of the races, but as the horses came nearer it was seen that the bright orange colors of Hamburg Belle and the light blue of the Whitney pair could be seen in front.

LITTLE-EM FOR A MOMENT.

As they came nearer Little Em was seen to be close up, while Lady Amelia and the Minute man were right at their heels.

On they came into the stretch, with Hamburg Belle still in the lead. A great roar went up from the crowd. "Hamburg Belle wins in a walk!"

Then the Whitney colt Leonidas began to close rapidly. Fuller, on the mare, glanced over his right shoulder in a frightened way and at once went to the whip. The mare moved badly and went over to the inside rail. This made it appear as if Leonidas was gaining, and the crowd, ever fickle, began to shout for Leonidas.

GAME TO THE FINISH.

Once over on the rail, however, the mare steadied, and going on good and game, managed to get home by a head from Leonidas.

Four lengths away came the Minute Man, fogged and spurred by Bullman, but unable to close any ground.

Audience was four lengths behind the Minute Man, and the others were in a big bunch headed and necked apart.

The time of the race, 1:12, was fast owing to the fact that a heavy northeast wind was behind the horses in the run to the finish.

The winners part of the stake was $35,300.
